

ABOUT IEVFS

The Inland Empire Valley Flute Society (IEVFS), formed in 2003. A resource for flutists of all ages, desiring to continue the study of their instrument.

The goals of the IEVFS are to gather flutists in this area to raise money for scholarships, encourage amateur players to improve their skills, provide performing opportunities, and promote events that will enhance individual flute playing by bringing professional flutists and artists to the area for master classes and recitals.

It is in this spirited association of students, amateurs, flute teachers, and professionals that the IEVFS endeavors to present a congenial forum for the advancement of flute music.

Jim Walker

"Renaissance Man of the Flute"

Dynamic soloist, legendary orchestral and studio musician, celebrated jazz flutist, and an inspiration to countless students worldwide; Jim Walker is living proof that with enough creativity and determination, one can reach the stars. He is a living legend, and a true Renaissance Man of the Flute.

Few other flutists in history have made such indelible marks in so many musical circles. From classical to conservatory to orchestral to jazz to pop, television to film to the concert hall, Jim Walker has never met an audience that didn't love his powerful, "stand and deliver" performances.

Some of his career achievements include:

Professor of Flute and Chamber Music at The Colburn Conservatory of Music | Professor at the University of Southern California's Thornton School of Music and The Music Academy of the West | Former Principal Flutist, Los Angeles Philharmonic | Founder of Free Flight, jazz/classical quartet | Recording Artist, Session Flutist, Los Angeles Motion Picture/TV Studios, with more than 750 film scores and commercial recordings.

Mr. Walker has taught hundreds of flutists both privately and at these renowned institutions. Many of his students have gone on to successful orchestral careers, holding Principal Flute chairs in major symphonies from Phoenix to Boston to Beijing. Still others have careers in fields as varied as gospel music and arts administration. Jim is not interested in simply training musicians; he inspires each pupil as a whole person, and students leave his tutelage feeling empowered, reaching for the stars. With such a legacy, it is no wonder that students on four continents have flocked to hear his recitals and master classes.

In addition to being coordinator of flute at the Thornton School, Mr. Walker travels extensively giving clinics and master classes around the world. And, Jim Walker is a Performing Artist for Burkart & Resona Flutes and Piccolos.
