An Opportunity You Won't Want to Miss!

Tracy Harris is back in the Inland Empire for a special Master Class and Performance with IEVFS. Sunday, October 23, 2011 will be a big event for area flutists with opportunities for lessons and master class performances.

More information to come at:
inlandempirevalleyflutesociety.com

Tracy is a featured Yamaha artist described as "well known for her expressive, rich tone and superb interpretation of flute music. She combines "liquid technique, endless tone colors and the soul of a seasoned artist leaving audiences breathless with her profound and moving interpretations" of the great composers from all ages" by Yamaha.

Scholarship Opportunities through IEVFS

The Inland Empire Valley Flute Society is proud to be able to offer an annual Flute Lesson Scholarship to local flute students associated with IEVFS.

The scholarship covers 50% of fees for 6 months of lessons giving a student the means to continue their musical studies in tough economic times. The winner is also given a free student membership and performance opportunity with IEVFS at their Membership Recital.

Applications are accepted through March, final due date to be determined, and require a completed Application Form, Statement of Interest, Musical Resume, and Instructor Recommendation.

All current IEVFS members and students of members are encouraged to apply!

About IEVFS

The mission of the Inland Empire Valley Flute Society is to inspire flutists of all ages and abilities and to support each other in their endeavors to learn, improve, and enjoy the flute.

Goals of IEVFS are to: promote flute events, bring flutists together, encourage amateur players, provide a place to gather and exchange ideas, inspire others to continue playing flute by giving them an outlet for their talents, and encourage growth as a flute player.
