Silver Sounds Flute Ensemble At the Shakespeare Festival– May 28, 2011

Silver Sounds will be the pre-show music entertainment at the Shakespeare Festival this year on May 28, 2011 at 6:45 p.m. at the Redlands Bowl. They will play for 30 minutes before the play starts. The play that night will be "As you like it". Shakespeare's gender-bending romantic comedy set in the American Wild West in the style of a traditional Western melodrama. It's "Blazing Saddles" meets Shakespeare for a hilarious rip-roarin' good time!

Attention all flutists!

Memberships

We need to have more members in our Inland Valley Empire Flute Society. So be proud of your flute club that is so close to you. Please if each one of you brings a new guest with you we will have doubled our size. This would be good!

Monthly meetings aren't all business. If you have not been to a meeting lately what are you waiting for? The meetings always center around good food and conversation and a healthy dose of business. We regularly include a presentation by a guest artist, viewing of a new, exciting artist online, or flute choir music sight-reading session. Any suggestions for future events and meetings are always welcome. Come join in the flutie fun!
